

IV INTERDISCIPLINARY SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE MATHEMATICAL TRANSGRESSIONS

Pedagogical University of Cracow
13 - 16 March, 2019
Cracow, Poland

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

We are pleased to invite you to participate in The Fourth Interdisciplinary Scientific Conference Mathematical Transgressions (ISCMT) which will be held from 13th to 16th March 2019 in Cracow, Poland. The conference is organized by the Institute of Mathematics of the Pedagogical University of Cracow.

The conference program will include plenary lectures, extended presentations, thematic working sessions, workshops and a poster session.

Plenary speakers

It is a great pleasure for us to announce that the plenary lectures will be given by the following prominent researchers in the field of mathematics education:

- ❖ Gerald Goldin, Rutgers University, USA
- ❖ Anna Sfard, University of Haifa, Israel
- ❖ David Tall, Warwick University, UK
- ❖ Rina Zazkis, Simon Fraser University, Canada

We invite you to take full advantage of the many opportunities for scientific interaction with researchers representing different parts of the world, cultures and perspectives.

Topics covered by the Conference Sessions

We propose the following subjects to be discussed:

- Transgressions in the history and philosophy of mathematics
- Acts of transgression in mathematics education
- Psychological transgressions in the teaching and learning of mathematics
- Cognitive, affective and conative factors affecting mathematics teaching and learning
- Mathematics and Arts

We encourage you to extend and enrich that list.
