

ARTICLE TITLE (THE STYLE IS CALLED ARTICLE TITLE)

The author's name (the style is called Author)

Type your abstract here. The abstract should contain up to 250 words. The style is called Normal 1. Type your abstract here. The abstract should contain up to 250 words. The style is called Normal 1. Type your abstract here. The abstract should contain up to 250 words. The style is called Normal 1. The style is called Normal 1. Type your abstract here. The abstract should contain up to 250 words. The style is called Normal 1.

Keywords: keyword 1, keyword 2, keyword 3, keyword 4, keyword 5

1. INTRODUCTION (THE STYLE IS CALLED HEADING 1)

Please use styles defined in this document while formatting your paper. If you don't normally use styles in Word, you would benefit from finding out about styles before you use this template.

2. FORMATTING YOUR PAPER

Type here your text. The first paragraph in each section should not be indented. The style for the first paragraph is called Normal 1.

Indented quotations like this (more than two lines) are in style Quote. Indented quotations like this (more than two lines) are in style Quote. Indented quotations like this (more than two lines) are in style Quote. Indented quotations like this (more than two lines) are in style Quote.

There should be one blank line between every two paragraphs with different styles, as you can see in this document.

2.1. Paper length (the style for subheadings is called Heading 2)

Papers should contain 20 000 – 40 000 characters.

2.2. Page numbers

Please do not paginate your paper. Page numbers will be inserted when the paper is included in the publication.

2.3. Illustrations, graphs and tables

2.3.1. Illustrations and graphs (the style for sub-subheadings is called Heading 3)

All illustrations of the manuscript file should be also submitted in their own separate, appropriately named (fig1, fig2, fig3, ...) files.

Illustrations and graphs must be centered and should appear within the designated margins. Do not use any colors. Caption and number every illustration. The caption for a figure appears below the graphic.

Fig. 1. Example of placing a figure (the style is called Caption).

2.3.2. Tables

Tables must be centered and should appear within the designated margins. Do not use any colors. Caption and number every table. The caption should appear above the table.

Table 1. Table caption

Column One	Column Two	Column Three
Cell 1	Cell 2	Cell 3
Cell 4	Cell 5	Cell 6

3. CITATIONS

Cite references in the text by name and year in parentheses. Some examples:

- Negotiation research spans many disciplines (Thompson, 1990).
- Speaking of transgression, Koziellecki (1987) uses terms of an intentional and individual psychological process...
- Issues of people's decision making have been the subject of research for many decades (Kahnemann et al., 1982; Newell and Simon, 1972; Savage, 1954).

AUTHOR NOTE

The Author's name, affiliation, email and short description of scientific interests. Author note should be no longer than 5 lines of the text.

REFERENCES

- Bruner, J. S. (1990). Acts of meaning. Harvard University Press. (for one Author books)
- Davis, G. A., & Rimm, S. B. (1989). Education of the gifted and talented. Prentice-Hall, Inc. (for more than one Author books)
- Kalinowska, A. (2012). Mathematical Typical and Problem Tasks as an Educational Cognitive Context. Procedia-Social and Behavioral Sciences, 55, 661-668. (for journal articles)
- Schoenfeld, A. H. (1992). Learning to think mathematically: Problem solving, metacognition, and sense making in mathematics. Handbook of research on mathematics teaching and learning, 334-370. (for book chapters)

The conference proceedings will be based on high quality, mathematics and mathematics education related papers submitted after the conference. Each paper will undergo a process of a double-blind revision.

Please submit your full papers to:

Barbara Pieronkiewicz barbara.pieronkiewicz@up.krakow.pl

The deadline for full paper submission is the 31st March 2019.